

EADS CASA MTAD France SAS Changes Name to Airbus Military France SAS

Effective immediately, EADS CASA MTAD France SAS will change as follows: Airbus Military France SAS. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Defense Trade Controls, Bureau of Political Military Affairs is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for formal amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying EADS CASA MTAD France SAS will not require an amendment to reflect the change to Airbus Military France SAS. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved license by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying EADS CASA MTAD France SAS as a party to the license on the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after June 30, 2013, identifying EADS CASA MTAD France SAS as a party to the license on the license will be considered for return without action for correction to the new name.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such. New DSP-83s must be executed as a result of the name change, as applicable.

Pending agreement applications identifying EADS CASA MTAD France SAS will be adjudicated without prejudice. With the filing of the executed agreement, the agreement holder must attach a copy of this web notice as explanation for the name change in the executed agreement.
