Annual Report to Congress
On Direct Commercial Sales Authorizations to Foreign Countries and International Organizations for Fiscal Year 2020
Sec. 655 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as Amended

Overview
This report documents defense articles and defense services licensed for permanent export under Section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act (AECA), 22 U.S.C. 2778, to each foreign country and international organization during fiscal year (FY) 2020, in response to the requirements in Section 655(b)(3) of the Foreign Assistance Act (FAA) of 1961, as amended. The report specifies the aggregate dollar value and quantity of defense articles, and defense services, authorized to each foreign country and international organization during the fiscal year, as well as data on the actual shipments of those licensed transactions. The actual shipment data shows the total dollar value of all shipments that were authorized and exported during the fiscal year to each destination. Authorizations in this report are categorized based on the destination country. The Department of Defense will report International Military Education and Training activities separately. In accordance with subsection (c) of Section 655, this report is also being made available to the public on the internet through the Department of State, Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC), at www.pmddtc.state.gov.

On January 23, 2020, the Department amended the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (22 CFR Parts 120-130) to revise U.S. Munitions List (USML) Categories I-III to prescribe precisely the articles that provide critical military or intelligence advantage or perform inherently military function and warrant control on the USML. These changes took effect on March 9, 2020. Therefore, the Department is providing information on the defense articles and services under its jurisdiction at the time of authorization.

In addition to reporting information related to exports licensed under Section 38 of the AECA, Section 655(b)(3) of the FAA also requires the specification of semiautomatic weapons and spare parts for such weapons; such data is provided in the appendix, as reflected in Category I(a) and I(h) in the USML, respectively. Since items under these subcategories transitioned to the Department of Commerce, they are only reported if the license application was received prior to March 9, 2020, and subsequently approved.

Authorizations applicable to multiple countries in the appendix are included under the designation “Various.” Since documentation for shipping purposes requires a definitive destination be declared, actual shipments for those articles approved under the designation “Various” are attributed to the country listed on the shipping documentation.

The value of authorizations for defense articles and defense services does not correlate precisely to the value of articles actually transferred during the reporting period. Most licenses issued for defense articles are valid for four years and may be used throughout the four years to execute authorized transactions. Similarly, manufacturing license and technical assistance agreements cover a wide range of programmatic activities for multiyear periods (generally exceeding the four-year validity period of defense-article export licenses). Export authorizations furnished in FY 2020 also include certain activities occurring in prior years because the scope of the Department’s regulatory authority over such agreements continues for as long as these multiyear agreements remain in effect.

The categories of the USML used throughout this report are as follows; subcategory descriptions are provided for reference only. Exports by subcategory, except Categories I(a) and I(h) through March 9, 2020, are not detailed in the appendices.
